

COMMUNICATION
October 4, 2022

Dear Colleagues,

We would like to share the following updates with you from QPAT:

QPAT Convention

As you know, QPAT Convention is right around the corner on October 13 and 14 at the Hotel Bonaventure. The workshop schedule has been finalized and can be found here.

In order to access both the workshops and the keynote presentation from Rick Mercer on Thursday evening, QPAT has decided to go paperless and has created a PDF e-ticket instead. You may download it here should you wish to print it, but you may also display it on your mobile device when you arrive at the hotel.

See you next Thursday!

Retirement Workshops

QPAT will be holding their regular pension information sessions for teachers considering retirement by the end of this academic year. The presentations will be held virtually via Zoom, and sessions are available in both English and French. New this year is a session split over two days rather than in the traditional three-hour block.

You may find more information about these sessions, including the registration link, here.

As always, do not hesitate to reach out if you have any questions or comments.

All the best,

Matt Wilson
PTU President
