Running Effective Meetings

Role of the Chairperson

- The chairperson should discuss the agenda in advance with administration and, if necessary, with the PTU Delegate.
- The chairperson should be able to recall previous decisions.
- Time limits should be placed on discussion items.
- Agenda order should be followed – keep on topic.

Establish a Routine

- Meeting dates
- Agenda setting
- Starting and ending on time
- Having appropriate information available, e.g. staffing allocation, monthly budget and printout

Meet in an Appropriate Setting

- Area conducive to meeting
- Tables to write on
- Reasonably formal setting

Representative Council Make-Up

- By team, cycle, department, etc.

- Consider broad aspects of issues – effect on school as a whole
- Council members should support the chairperson’s endeavours to run efficient meetings by following the procedures

NOTE: any decision affecting the entire teaching staff should be presented to the teachers for approval. An approval of 75% must be obtained by the teachers directly involved when referring to 8-10.02 of the Provincial Entente. Otherwise, a simple majority suffices. Certain decisions could require a meeting with the entire teaching staff.

Invitation to School Community for Specific Items

- PTU, LBPSB, parents, support staff, etc.
- Consider including parent groups. Informed parents are allies.

Develop a Constitution

- This allows for continuity of school policy re. council
- Can be a good reference guide for the chairperson
- Number of teacher representatives (minimum of 3):
 - Secondary representatives: 1 per department is recommended
 - Elementary representatives: 1 per cycle is recommended
 - Other teachers and staff members may attend but only elected members may vote.

Agenda Setting

Agenda Items to be added by staff members

- Staff should be provided with an opportunity for input to the agenda
- Post agenda in an obvious area, or
- Post agenda in a day book, or
- Circulate agenda among staff
- A person adding an item to the agenda should sign their name so that the chairperson may have prior information regarding the item

- There should be a deadline regarding agenda additions in order to allow the chairperson to prepare

Dealing with Agenda in Council

- The chairperson prioritizes the items
- Items left from a previous meeting should be dealt with on a priority basis at the next meeting
- The chairperson may decide that some items are for information only and can be dealt with via a memorandum
- When appropriate, the chairperson may ask teams or departments to pre-discuss some items

Solving Small Agenda Problems

1. Agenda items should be screened by the chairperson and the administrator. The council members should spend the majority of their time on the major issues that affect school life.
2. Define whether or not an issue is appropriate for council.

If yes, proceed with the item.

If no, redirect in one of the following ways:

- delegate to a committee
 - send to team or department
 - send out response sheet to staff allowing them to make suggestions
 - use day-book to exchange information items
 - deal with items at a staff meeting
3. Use an information sheet attached to the meeting minutes when items are for information only.
 4. Remember: council is not a complaints department!

Keeping Proper Minutes

Establish at the first council meeting what the council's expectations are regarding the minutes.

1. Use a standard form, listing the following:

- items to be discussed
 - decisions taken
 - action to be followed
 - date by which action should occur
2. Submit motions in writing.
 3. Be succinct: minute main points and conclusions.
 4. The chairperson should keep mini notes.
 5. The chairperson and the secretary should compare notes.
 6. Minutes should be proofread.
 7. Send a copy of the minutes to all staff.
 8. Send a copy of the minutes to PTU, to the appropriate sector Director and to the Director of Human Resources.

Be sure to include the name of your school at the top of the page – it is helpful to people outside your school. We really do read them!

Communicating with Constituents (Colleagues)

1. Each council member must be assigned a specific group of constituents.
2. Constituents must know who their council representative is.
3. Each council representative should have a reasonable degree of proximity to their constituents.
4. Representatives should communicate with their constituents via:
 - a bulletin, or
 - a poll, using a tear-off sheet, or
 - portal email
5. Teachers must take ownership of items they ask their representative to bring to council.
6. All teachers must have access to school council minutes which should be clear and in a standardized form.

In order to avoid the unnecessary duplication of meetings, when legislation obliges other staff to also be involved in the development or implementation of an issue, and where the majority of teachers agree, other staff may be invited to participate in school council and/or general teaching staff meetings.
- b) The school council shall inform all teachers of the school or centre of its decisions by distributing draft minutes of its meetings to each teacher within seven (7) working days from the date of the meeting and may report to them on its deliberations at staff meetings or at meetings called for this purpose. To this end, the school or centre administration shall provide secretarial assistance in the typing and distribution of minutes. A copy of the official school council minutes shall be sent to the president of the union, the Director of Human Resources and the appropriate Regional Director.
